4.	The correct spelling of the word is 'Foreword'.
5.	The correct spelling of the word is 'Argument'.
6.	To make clean breast of means 'to tell the truth about. Something so that you no longer feel guilty'. Hence; option (A) is the correct answer.
7.	'A man of straw' means 'a person of little substance Hence, option (C) is the correct answer.
8.	'A wild-goose chase' means 'a search for something that is impossible for you to find or that does not exist and which makes you waste a lot of time'. Hence, option option (D) is the correct answer.
9.	'Put on the market' means 'to offer for sale'. Hence, option (A) is the correct answer.
10.	'To meet someone halfway' means 'to reach an agreement with somebody by giving them part of what they want'. Hence, option (B) is the correct answer.
11.	The passage talks about the role higher education plays in the development of the India, the quiet crisis in higher education in India and the challenges that impede the process of improvement and the spread of higher education in the country. Hence, option (C) is the correct answer.
12.	The passage analyzes and criticizes the existence of insufficient number of Universities to provide higher education in India and also states that the quality of education provided in most of them is not up to the mark. Hence, option (B) is the correct answer. Option (A) is incorrect because the theme/content of the
	(A) is incorrect because the theme/content of the passage is academic but the manner/style in which the passage is written cannot be called academic.
13.	Refer to the following: sentence from the fourth paragraph, "It is only an inclusive society that can provide the foundations for a knowledge society." Hence, option (D) is the correct answer.
14.	Option (A) is incorrect because the first paragraph of the passage describes IITs and IIMs as "islands of excellence". Therefore, option (A) is the correct answer.
	Option (B) is true as evidenced from the following sentence of the second paragraph, "The proportion of our population,that enters the world of higher education is around 7 per cent, which is only one half the average of Asia." Option (C) is true as the passage talks about the importance of primary and higher education being essential for the growth of a country.
15.	The passage describes the sorry state of affairs concerning higher education in India and the need for improvement in this field. Hence, option (C) is the correct answer.
16.	Option (D) is false because it is not mentioned anywhere
10.	in the passage. Hence, it is the correct answer. All other options are true because the passage states the need of existence of excellent institutes, massive expansion of opportunities and substantial improvement in the quality 17.	of higher education. Options (A) (B) and (C) are all correct because the 1/.	Options (A), (B) and (C) are all correct because the passage states that "primary education is absolutely essential because it is the base", "universities are the life-blood of higher education" and "transformation of economy and society in the 21st century would depend, in significant part, on the quality of education particularly in the sphere of higher education". Hence, 18.	option (D) is the correct answer. Refer to the following sentence from the first paragraph,
10.	"Islands of excellence in professional education, such as Indian Institutes of Technology (IITs) and Indian indian indian

	Institutes of Management (IIMs), are valuable complements but cannot be substitutes for universities which provide educational opportunities for people at large." From this, we can infer that the passage states that not all universities should be modeled on these premier institutes. Hence, option (C) is the correct answer.
19.	'Cutting Edge' means highly advanced; innovative or pioneering. So, 'conventional' is its apt antonym. Hence, option A is the correct answer.
20.	'Discernible' means visible or noticeable. Hence, option
	B is the correct answer.
21.	Since the sentence states that the action of 'proposing a vote for thanks' was done at some point of time (at the end of the meeting) in the past, we will use the simple past tense. Hence, option (D) is the correct answer.
	Option (A) is incorrect because the subject 'vote' is singular and so it should not be followed by a plural verb 'were'. Option (B) is incorrect because the correct phrase is 'vote of thanks', which refers to an informal vote to thank some chairman or other officer of an organization for the work he has done on the organization's behalf. Option (C) is incorrect because the action (proposing a vote for thanks) did not happen at some point in the past before some action or time in the past (as it happens in the case of simple past tense).
22.	According to the sentence, recession will force companies to lay off/dismiss their workers or the companies will be forced/compelled to lay off their workers. Hence, option (A) is the correct answer. Option (B) is incorrect because the phrase 'will have the force to' is grammatically incorrect in the given context.
	Option (C) is incorrect because the sentence does not mean that the companies will dismiss its employees willingly but that recession will force the companies into doing it. Option (D) is incorrect because the correct phrase would have been "companies will be forced into 23.	laying off workers". Option (B) is the correct answer because 'to have good
23.	command over a language' means to have good amount of knowledge to use that language. Option (A) is incorrect because 'expertise' is not followed by 'over' but 'in'. Options (C) and (D) are incorrect because it is

In positive and neutral contexts, the correct placement of pronouns in a statement is in the following order : 2 nd person pronoun \rightarrow 3 rd person pronoun \rightarrow 1 ^M person pronoun. For example - You, he (any name) and I will be responsible for the decorations. Also, in this context, 'Rohan and I' are subjects who performed the action of 'going to Paris' not objects on whom the action was performed, so T (used for subjects) and not 'me' (used for objects) is appropriate here; Hence, option (D) is the correct answer and all other options are incorrect. 'Shall' is the helping verb (generally used with first person pronouns like T and We ¹) in question tags to politely seek permission. For example -1 was thinking of borrowing your dress, shall I/may I? Hence, option (B) is the correct answer. Option (A) would have been correct if the sentence were to be - We can't go for a walk, can we?' Option (D) would have been correct if the sentence were to be - We can go for a walk, can't we?' 	Since consent of 'V' was obtained through coercion, the
1.0	contracts becomes voidable at the option of 'Y'.
160.	This is an Agreement in restraint of marriage and hence
1(1	is void (cannot be enforced in a court of law).
161.	X gave money to Y in his house not only because he was a cashier, but because he was his neighbor and X trusted him. Y as an employee was not told by the bank to collect money from X at his house. Therefore the Bank js not vicariously liable for the act of Y as it was committed outside the course of employment.
162.	The very Act of purchasing ticket match signifies 'X' consenting to the injury as it is common knowledge that in a cricket match, the ball, hit by batsmen does falls into spectator area occasionally.
163.	X does not have any remedy and will have to pay all his dues as he cannot take ignorance of law as a defence.
164.	It can be established that damage was being caused to ES as they had to reduce their school fee but at the same time it can also be established that there was no violation of legal rights of ES.
165.	There was no damage caused to A as the candidate he wanted to vote for won. But his legal right to vote was violated; therefore he has to be compensated.
166.	D would be liable as he published defamatory material against P and had no evidence to prove whatever he published was true.
167.	The principal clearly states that gift of future property would be void. Since the sale of adjacent land has not been completed, it would be considered a future property with respect to 'X' gifting it away.
168.	'A' should have been cautious and had tested out
100.	whether the cloth he is purchasing is fit for his purpose i.e. for making uniforms or not. Since he has not done that, therefore he cannot succeed in getting a remedy against the Seller.
169.	Since 'X' himself had obtained the bike illegally, he
109.	cannot sell the bike as an owner and therefore 'Y' has no title.
170.	It was failure on the part of manufacturer to exercise
170.	the standard of care required by law, resulting in damage to D who was the Consumer and was getting directly affected.
